How would you direct the fight scene?

What happens in this scene?
What has happened just before this scene?
Why does this affect Romeo’s behaviour in the scene?

How would the characters speak/act and why?

- Benvolio would act ....................................................................................................................
  because ..............................................................................................................................................
  when he says “ ..............................................................................................................................”
  he should ...........................................................................................................................................
  to show ...........................................................................................................................................

- When Tybalt says “ ..................................................................................................................”
  he should ...........................................................................................................................................
  because he is feeling ......................................................................................................................
  After he has killed Mercutio, he would ............................................................................................
  because ...........................................................................................................................................

- Mercutio is not scared of Tybalt because he says “ ...............................................................”
  when ..............................................................................................................................................
  During this scene, Mercutio would act ............................................................................................
  Especially when he says “ ...............................................................................................................
  Mercutio would be feeling ............................................................................................................. he would show this by ...................................................................................................................

- At the start of the scene, Romeo is feeling .................................................................................
  because ...........................................................................................................................................
  He does not want to fight Tybalt – he says “ ..............................................................................”
  At the same time, he would ............................................................................................................
  to show ...........................................................................................................................................
  After Tybalt has killed Mercutio, Romeo would feel ..................................................................... and would show this by ..................................................................................................................
  When Romeo says “ .......................................................................................................................”
  before he kills Tybalt he would ......................................................................................................
  After he has killed Tybalt he feels ...................................................................................................
  He says “ ........................................................................................................................................
  and would show his emotions by .................................................................................................
What are these characters thinking and feeling in the fight scene?

Tybalt

Romeo

Benvolio

Mercutio