

USA in the 1930s: The Economic Depression

Imagine being so poor that you have to queue for bread and water. What do you think some of these people are thinking?

A 'breadline' in the 1930s. The poverty was that bad that people were unable to afford food.